Allâ Alars

May 2006

The summer season is here again. The sun is shining, the pool is open, and the wine is ready to pour!

We hope you have all had a good start to the year, and we are looking forward to seeing all our friends who are coming to stay again this year, as well as our new visitors.

Our first ski season went well - with no broken bones! And many people looking forward to returning next year to continue their lessons - your never too young to start!

Romarin, our new luxury two bed-roomed gite is now completed, and already fully booked for August, and most of July, so if you want to stay in Romarin this year, Book Now! (To see this new gite, please visit our web site).

If you are coming to stay this year, and have not read Labyrinth by Kate Moss, we can recommend it to give you a flavour of some of history of Carcassonne and surrounding area, Sais-sac Castle is in the next village to us, and there are many other Cathare Castles in the vicinity, and for those of you who have not visited Carcassonne Cite before, you will find a fairy-tale place awaiting you.

As usual there are lots of Village fetes arranged for the summer months, and this year one of the stages of the Tour de France is finishing in Carcassonne, and of course on July 13th & 14th we will have the firework displays to celebrate Bastille Day - another brilliant summer begins!
